From the Elders

Over the years, many have questioned the wisdom of a personal name as part of a congregation's name. Some have expressed concern over the label "granny" with its connotations. In recent years, our young people while traveling on our bus, have been followed, photographed, and laughed at, because of the name on the bus.

Those of us who have lived in this part of Nashville for decades understand the origin of the name Granny White to be a street name. To others, however, the name seems odd, old-fashioned, biased, a bit humorous. For these reasons, the elders have made the decision to begin a search for a new congregational name. We are excited to have the opportunity to adopt a name that above all honors Christ, speaks to our mission of loving others, is warm and inviting to everyone and solidifies us as believers. Please submit your thoughts and suggestions in writing or by email to the church office or any elder in by May 13. Also please pray for God to direct our search for a name that will glorify God and send our community a welcoming invitation to come to know our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. To God be all the glory.
