

Happy Father's Day

June 17, 2018
Evening Worship at CAMP
Also 6 p.m. service in Chumley Hall

From the Elders

Six weeks ago, the elders announced the decision to study a way for changing the location name of this congregation. The name, Church of Christ, is engraved in the stone above our entrance and will not be changed. The elders individually have read all comments received and have discussed how to include that input in the final decision. The elders have reached a consensus and we are happy to announce the formal name selected is Church of Christ in Green Hills. Our mailing address will continue to be 3805 Granny White Pike. It will take time for most of us to stop referring the church here as Granny White. In time, we will begin to hear Green Hills rather than the formal name Church of Christ in Green Hills. The process for working out the details over the next few weeks should allow for this change to occur formally by the first of September. Thank you for your good spirit in what has been a troubling time for some and an exciting opportunity for others. Above all, thank you for your prayers.
